

Director of Ministry to Children and Families

Part-time position working with families and children through 5th grade — 25 hours/week

Qualifications: Candidate exhibits a growing Christlike character within all spheres of their life. The applicant shall personally display; Integrity, self-control, humility, joy, compassion, authenticity, and relational. His/her passion for connecting with children and families and equipping them to grow in Christ will be evident. It is paramount that he/she desires to be united in the vision and ministry application of Becker Baptist Church. Applicants must fully affirm Becker Baptist's statement of faith and become a member of the church.

Responsibilities: The main responsibility of this position is to passionately help children to know Jesus, make Him known, and connect families to the church. This will be displayed by:

- Equipping parents with resources to help grow their children's spiritual life
- Brainstorm and schedule children and family ministry
- Recruit, train, develop, and lead a team of volunteers to teach God's Word, and show God's love on a weekly basis in children and family ministry
- Ensure and follow through with BBC's volunteer screening process and protection procedures
- Work alongside Pastoral staff and the BBC Education Committee
- Keep the lead pastor and staff informed of emerging situations
- Set the example of a servant leader committed to growing personally and professionally

On a practical level, BBC Kids has established three main ministry opportunities in which this role will have a direct and tangible impact on: (1) Sunday Morning growth and development (i.e. Children's Church), (2) Vacation Bible School (outreach in the community), and (3) various special events. The Director of Ministry to Children and Families will be responsible for the purchasing of materials, the setup, and being part of the teaching rotation for these three main opportunities.

A secondary practical responsibility is to work with volunteer leaders to help ensure other BBC children's ministry opportunities are aligned with the BBC Kids goals and objectives set forth by this position. These may include Sunday School hour, Outreach programming (Midweek?), etc...

Allocation of Hours: Much of the work to be done for the Director of Ministry to Children and Families will be the facilitation of volunteers, coordinating materials, and planning for BBC Kids programming. Much of this is office work and the Director of Ministry to Children and Families will need to establish office working hours. Ideally at least 12 of these hours will be Tuesday-Friday in the BBC office. This will be further discussed upon the terms of employment.

Compensation and Benefits: The compensation will range between $22,000-$24,000/yr and will be further discussed upon terms of employment. As a part-time position, there are no benefits and vacation time will be addressed upon terms of employment.

Work/Education Requirements:

- Experience in Children and Family Ministry fields or other related fields is a plus
